OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 20 June 1962

25X1 1. ([] JSW) Talked with Claude J. Desautels in the White 25X1 House concerning the case of [] I indicated that there were complications in this case which had arisen after he had been put in process for a surplus personnel program. Further, the individual was not well and although the new problems were most serious in order to assist the man we were simply going to continue the processing and he would be terminated probably next month. It was agreed that I would talk to Helen Tomascik in Representative Daniel J. Flood's office to acquaint her with the background of the case.

25X1 2. [] - GLC) Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security 25X1 Subcommittee staff, called to say the Subcommittee yesterday took the 25X1 testimony of a [] who was [] He mentioned connection between [] and said he thought we might be interested in taking a look at the transcript which was available to us.
I thanked Sourwine and said I would be in touch with him further on this.

25X1 3. [] - JGO) Returned to Doris McCracken, of the House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, the transcript of the hearings before that Committee's Subcommittee on Europe, dated 12 June 1962, on the topic of Captive Nations.

25X1 5. [] Discussed briefly with George C.
25X1 Denney, Consultant to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, questions of whether blocked [] could be used or the contingency fund of the President be used to provide assistance for the []. (See 25X1 Journal of 19 June) Mr. Denney advised that although the [] 25X1 ment had been somewhat qualified since passed by the Senate, it is not clear at the present time whether any assistance of any kind could be given.
It will be necessary to await action of the House before any basis is available for consideration of such problems.
